REGULATION
AN ANY OTHER MORNING
NEWSPAPER IN THE SOUTH.

VOL. XCVII. NEW SERIES—NO. 11,989. LOUISVILLE, MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 28, 1901. PRICE THREE CENTS. (ON TRAINS FIVE CENTS.)

The Weather.
Forecast for Monday and Tuesday:
Kentucky—Fair Monday, with cooler in northern portion; Tuesday fair in eastern, probably rain and cooler in western portion; southerly winds.
Indiana—Fair Monday; Tuesday fair and warmer; light northeasterly winds, becoming southeasterly.
Tennessee—Fair Monday, with warmer in northern portion; Tuesday fair in eastern, showers and cooler in western portion; southeasterly winds.

THE LATEST.
George Parker, alias "Butch Cassidy," one of the most desperate characters in the West, who is believed to have been implicated in the robbery of the Great Northern express train near Wagner, Mont., last June, fought his way clear of two city detectives in Nashville yesterday, and, after a thrilling chase, made his escape. In his race for liberty he utilized a two-horse wagon team, a horse and buggy and a riding horse, all forcibly taken, while two dead bloodhounds marked the first portion of his trail. The man threw away a wallet containing $1,000 in ten and twenty-dollar bills of the Montana Bank.

While the "bureaucrats" are now trying to throw discredit upon the testimony of Rear Admiral Schley, saying his testimony was a written argument, and insisting that he has been shown culpable by a score of witnesses, the friends of Schley are already talking of a congressional inquiry and will not stop short of complete vindication.

The funeral of Robert Coffey, the Empire mine guard who was murdered in Christian county Saturday while pursuing men who attacked nonunion miners, took place in Hopkinsville yesterday. The Empire mines have been forced to close on account of the excitement. The operators will resist all attempts to organize their men.

Between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday opportunity to register for the November election will be given citizens who were prevented, either by illness or absence from the city, from registering on the regular registration days. The special registration will be by affidavit at the County Clerk's office.

It is probable that the body of Leon Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, will be cremated after the execution, which will take place in Auburn prison, N. Y., Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock. Every attempt will be made to avoid the appearance of sensationalism.

In a sensational sermon the Rev. J. Kinsey Smith declared human life safer in Afghanistan than in Kentucky, and bitterly assailed law justice in the Louisville courts, referring to the case last tried, when a man was acquitted of murdering his friend while drunk.

In a fight between insurgents and American troops on the island of Panay, the rebels were defeated and twenty-five of them were killed. Gen. Hughes reports that conditions are favorable for the pacification of Guam at an early date.

The Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Church will probably recommend to the General Conference that the war-claim money secured by the Methodist Publishing House be returned to the Government of the United States.

Miss Henrietta Tice, a Chicago Socialist, is trying to raise $200,000 among the anarchists and Socialists in order to have Leon Czolgosz's body buried in Chicago, and to erect a mausoleum over his grave.

The experts of the Agricultural Department will hunt all over the United States and its new possessions for conditions favorable to the cultivation of filler tobacco.

The Chilean army has been ordered mobilized for the end of November, ostensibly for maneuvers. The Argentine fleet has been ordered provisioned and coaled.

Despite the decree of excommunication, which forbids even his presence at church, the Rev. Jeremiah J. Crowley attended two masses in Chicago yesterday.

Capt. William H. Wilson, secretary of the Louisville Board of Park Commissioners and a prominent Confederate veteran, died yesterday morning.

Miss Stone and her companion are said to be confined in a cellar in a little village on the Bulgarian frontier.

The report that King Edward has cancer has finally been admitted by a London newspaper.

Twenty-three persons were eaten by wolves while working in the fields in Poland.

Josiah Turner, a noted Confederate leader of North Carolina, is dead.

The Pan-American Exposition in Buffalo will close this week.

A daughter has been born to the Duchess of Manchester.

President Roosevelt was forty-three years old yesterday.

The Manchurian-Siberian railway will soon be opened.

WILD DASH

For Freedom By Desperate Bandit.

FIGHTS HIS WAY TO LIBERTY.

Thrilling Chase Through Streets of Nashville.

A MONTANA TRAIN ROBBER

ESCAPES FROM OFFICERS AFTER A DARING RIDE IN STOLEN VEHICLES AND ON HORSEBACK.

STRUGGLE WITH DETECTIVES.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—A desperate man, George Parker, alias "Butch" Cassidy, cowboy, murderer and train robber, wanted for complicity in the Great Northern $32,000 express robbery at Wagner, Mont., escaped from the very clutches of the law this morning, and the chase after the fleeing desperado makes up one of the most exciting days in the history of the Nashville police department. News of the thrilling dash of the bandit spread through the city in a very few minutes, and it was not long until many citizens, armed with pistols, rifles and shotguns, joined Chief of Police Curran and Sheriff Hurt and their men in an effort to apprehend the man, but as the case stands he outwitted them all.

Presented Montana Bank Note.

He went to the Newman & Co. dry goods store, and after making small purchases presented a $20 bill in payment. It was found the bill was one of those stolen from the express train. A telephone message was sent to the police and the bandit was detained. Detectives Dwyer and Dickens responded. Detective Dwyer asked the man his name, to which he responded, giving the name of Ferguson. "We are officers and you are under arrest," said Dwyer, at the same time placing his hand on the man's shoulder.

Jerks Out Two Revolvers.

Quick as a flash, without uttering a word, and before the officers could pull their pistols, the prisoner with both hands threw back his coat and jerked from their holsters a brace of forty-five-caliber pistols, holding them in either hand, commanding the officers to permit him to pass them. Dwyer had his pistol out, while the other officer had his pocket "billy" filled with shot. They grabbed the prisoner from each side and a desperate hand-to-hand encounter followed, in which neither of the three men had a chance to use a pistol. Dwyer brought his billy into play from the head of the bandit, but he fought on like a demon. For three minutes the three men struggled in a small space near the front of the store only a few feet from the door. In some unaccountable manner the desperado, a man of herculean strength, threw the officers from him and made a dash into College street.

Captures An Ice Wagon.

Before the officers could recover themselves the man ran down the street, where a large ice wagon was passing. On the wagon were three negroes. The bandit threw one pistol in the holster he wore, catching one of the horses by the bridle. He commanded the negroes to leave the wagon, stating that he needed the team. Two were on the pavement in a jiffy, but one refused to give up, and did not leave the driver's box until after his life had been threatened. The desperado, grabbing the reins and a big whip, jumped to the driver's seat, whipped up the horses and was off in a minute, the team going up the grade fire-engine fashion. As the bandit drove up College street Detective Dwyer reopened fire on the fugitive and missed. The desperado proceeded on his way to the Cumberland river bridge, applying the lash to the steeds at their every jump. The wagon swayed to and fro as it went over the bridge, narrowly escaping a collision with other vehicles. In his dying ride the desperado lost his hat.

A Lightning Chase.

With coolness and deliberation the bandit decided upon his next move. He was certain he was being pursued by two and perhaps a dozen officers and citizens. Down Bridge avenue, at the corner of First street, he noticed a buggy with a good-looking bay horse attached. His brain acted quickly. The ice wagon team was slow, hitched to a cumbersome wagon. This team could not stand the race against more fleet-footed animals, and the driver decided to abandon the vehicle. He threw the horses, killing one, and leaping from the wagon marked with four bullet holes, leaving a trail of blood behind on the seat, he told a negro who was standing near by to take charge of the team. Again he showed rare presence of mind. Running across the street, he held up an old negro who was driving the bay horse, which belonged to Maj. M. J. Dodson. After securing the Dodson rig the bandit drove on at a frightful rate. Across the rough fields he went to a saw mill near the river, passing across several gulches, where telephone poles are trimmed for use. There were several hundred of these poles.

FATHER CROWLEY DEFIES DECREE AND WORSHIPS IN TWO CHURCHES

Though Forbidden Even To Enter the House of God, He Attends Mass Without Interruption.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—[Special.]—With the final order of his excommunication in his pocket, Father Jeremiah J. Crowley this morning bade defiance to the authorities of the Roman Catholic Church by attending two masses. He began the day by attending mass at St. Peter's church; at 10 o'clock, wearing the Roman collar of the Catholic priesthood, he appeared at the Cathedral of the Holy Name and went to a prominent place in the auditorium. There he sat throughout the services, in spite of the fact that the order of his excommunication was already posted on the sacristy walls. No effort was made to eject him.

Chancellor F. J. Barry, acting for Archbishop Feehan, sent to every pastor in the diocese, to be read in every church to-day, the order of his excommunication, which says in part: "We hereby declare publicly and solemnly that the Rev. Jeremiah J. Crowley is excommunicated from the Roman Catholic Church and all participation therein, according to the decree of his eminence Sebastian Cardinal Martinielli, pro-delegate apostolic. The effects of this grave censure of the church are: First—He is cut off from the communion and society of the faithful. Second—The faithful are forbidden, under severe penalty, to hold communion with him or assist him in his unlawful conduct. Third—He cannot receive or administer any of the sacraments of the church. Should he attempt to give absolution in the tribunal of penance, said absolution is invalid and sacrilegious. Fourth—He cannot be present or assist at any of the public exercises of the office of religion in the Roman Catholic Church, nor can he be present at mass, vespers or any other public services in the Roman Catholic Church. Fifth—He cannot serve or fill any office within the gift of the Roman Catholic Church. Sixth—Should he die while under this excommunication, he will be deprived of Christian burial. Chancellor Barry repeated that the case has now passed wholly out of the power and jurisdiction of Archbishop Feehan, and the police found the boy's body, which was identified as that of Samuel Marotte, a son of Samuel Marotte, a well-known spice and coffee merchant.

KILLED A BOY FOR MONEY AND GOT BUT FIFTY CENTS

Montreal, Oct. 27.—"I killed a boy last night," said Tobin Hanson, a Dane, thirty-five years of age, to the officer in charge when he walked into Central Police Station to-day.

"I killed him for money, and I only got fifty cents. That is not enough, so I came to give myself up."

Hanson described the locality in which the deed had been committed, and the police found the boy's body, which was identified as that of Samuel Marotte, a son of Samuel Marotte, a well-known spice and coffee merchant.

ON PAPER

Seth Low Is Again Elected Mayor.

FORECASTS ARE UNRELIABLE.

SHEPARD NOW STRONGER THAN WHEN NOMINATED.

WHITNEY WILL PUT UP COIN.

New York, Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Mr. Seth Low has been elected Mayor of Greater New York to-day by ten to thirty thousand majority over E. M. Shepard by the Tribune and all the leading New York newspapers. This is the second time that Mr. Low has been elected Mayor of New York the second Sunday preceding the election by the leading daily press, but after electing him on paper the first time the voters defeated him with their paper ballots by fifty thousand plurality. So it seems that these newspaper elections do not count for much.

Whether such an overwhelming defeat awaits Low next Tuesday week as was given him by Van Wyck three years ago, it is hard to say, but it appears now to be generally believed that Shepard and the Tammany ticket will win out.

Shepard's Strength Grows Apace.

There is no change here in the political conditions excepting that Shepard is stronger than when nominated. It is now pretty well known that the strength of the Republican organization cannot be thrown solidly for Low. He will lose at least twenty thousand of regular Republican votes. This will make up to a great extent the losses expected in the independent Democratic ranks, a loss of voters who believe that Dick Croker is a bad man, and that Tammany Hall is a corrupt organization. There are thousands of independent Democrats, however, who have no use for Croker and Tammany.

In League With Anna Rogers.

In all probability he is in league with Anna Rogers, alias Maudie Williams, and has been here since the time of her arrest. Following the trial of the woman a story was afloat that three men, confederates of the woman, were present at the trial. The police investigated, but failed to discover anything. Perhaps the story was true. Telegrams have been sent all over the country, especially to surrounding towns, to be on the lookout for the fugitive. Several hundred people assisted the officers to-day scouring the country. An effort was made last night to locate Supt. Gaylor, of the Pinkerton agency, at Chicago, who left here Friday night. He is now in the South at New York on the case.

A Desperate Criminal.

The fugitive is regarded as one of the most desperate criminals in the West. He is known in criminal records as bank robber, highwayman, cattle and horse-thief as well as train robber. He has served a term in the Wyoming State penitentiary for grand larceny, but was pardoned January 19, 1896. At midnight the police and county officers had found no trace of the fugitive, and it is believed he has made his escape.

CHECK FOR $5,000

Given To King's Daughters' Hospital in Madison.

Madison, Ind., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Mrs. Pauline Fowle Durant, of Boston, last night gave to President Powell, of the National Branch Bank, a check in favor of the King's Daughters' Hospital, of Madison, for $5,000. The hospital building was a present from Mrs. Drusilla Lanier Cravens, widow of Hon. Robert Cravens, who at the time of his death was one of Madison's most distinguished citizens.

Whitney Has Never Met Defeat.

When it is remembered that Mr. Whitney has never met with a defeat in general, State or national politics his present position bodes no good to the Platt ticket. It is still repeated here in reliable and trustworthy circles that after the election of Shepard the chief of Tammany Hall, Mr. Croker, of Police Deputy will step down and the opinion is also growing that Mr. Shepard will be his own master as Mayor of Greater New York.

SEEKS FUNDS

To Erect a Monument To Czolgosz.

A CHICAGO WOMAN'S PLANS.

WOULD BURY THE ASSASSIN IN THAT CITY.

ASKS FOR SUM OF $200,000.

Plans For Execution In Auburn Prison Tuesday Are Complete—Effects To Be Burned.

PUBLICITY TO BE AVOIDED.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—[Special.]—To save the body of Leon F. Czolgosz from what she fears will be burial in a pauper's grave and to erect over it a $200,000 mausoleum has become the life object of Miss Henrietta Tice, a Chicago Socialist, who has a little money of her own to give to the cause. She has canvassed the leaders of both the Socialists and anarchists of the city begging them to aid, and so enthusiastic has she become that now she has the utmost faith that her plans will be fulfilled and the body and mausoleum be placed in Chicago.

The woman's enthusiasm is said not to be shared by the Chicago anarchists with whom President McKinley's assassins associated while he was here, and the Socialists scold the idea.

About two weeks ago she read that the body of Czolgosz is to be buried in the potter's field, and, looking at him as a martyr, this aroused her sympathies and she began a movement to save the body from what she deems a disgrace. She made several trips to the Socialists' Temple, but found there that the Socialists were indignant at even being classed with Czolgosz and his type. She then went to the anarchists. She then prepared an advertisement for the newspapers, which read as follows:

WANTED.—The names of persons who favor a scheme to raise $200,000 to erect a memorial to the memory of Leon F. Czolgosz. Address Henrietta Tice, General Delivery, Chicago, Ill.

The appearance of this advertisement in to-day's papers attracted considerable attention.

HIS HOURS ARE NUMBERED.

Czolgosz Will Be Executed Tuesday Morning.

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 27.—The time that Leon F. Czolgosz, assassin of President McKinley, has to live is reckoned by hours now, but there has been no relaxation of the stringent rule under which the prisoner has been secluded since his confinement. Auburn prison was closed to-day to any one who sought the assassin, and so it will remain until the prisoner has paid the penalty which the law exacts. In fact the plan to deprive Czolgosz living of any notoriety has been extended to deprive Czolgosz dead of notoriety.

Immediately after the execution the clothing of the murderer, with the accumulation of mail that came to the prison for him, will be burned, and if possible the request of the parents of the prisoner, who are very anxious to avoid anything of the kind. The plan of burning the clothing and letters of the prisoner will be very strict. The plan of burning the clothing and letters of the prisoner will be very strict.

Hour Set For Execution.

The hour of 7 o'clock on Tuesday morning is the time set by Warden J. Warren Mead for the execution.

The chair in which Czolgosz will sit to receive the deadly electrical shock will be examined to-day and tested by State Electrician E. F. Davis, and is ready for the part that it is to play in the final scene of the great national tragedy. Davis carefully examined the wiring, switching and electrodes and satisfied himself that they were in good condition. He also inspected the dynamo in the prison shop where the current is generated, and at his direction the current was for a brief period sent pulsating into the deathhouse as it will go on Tuesday.

Death Warrant Read.

The death warrant has not yet been read to the prisoner, but it is believed that it will to-morrow. The general practice is to read this paper some time after the commencement of the period for execution designated by the court. That period in this case commenced at midnight to-night.

The firm purpose of Superintendent Collins and Warden Mead to avoid even the appearance of sensationalism in this case is demonstrated by an incident in connection with one of the principal witnesses. Dr. Carlos F. McDonald, of New York City, a former President of the State Lunacy Commission, is one of the principal attending physicians at the execution. He was one of the alienists who examined Czolgosz in Buffalo and pronounced the prisoner sane. He has been very anxious to take away with him from the autopsy the assassin's brain for purposes of microscopic examination. A few days ago Dr. McDonald had a talk with Superintendent Collins and asked him to leave him after the autopsy, to take the brain to New York City for examination. Mr. Collins said to him:

His Request Refused.

"Doctor, I have planned to make this execution an example of mystery that will forestall any attempt at sensationalism. I cannot allow anything to go away from the prison that will in any way continue this man's identity for notoriety. You may stay at the prison for a week if you will and examine any portion of the anatomy you please, but you must stay here."

MAY RAISE FILLER TOBACCO IN AMERICAN POSSESSIONS

Agricultural Department Experts Will Hunt For Land Favorable To Its Cultivation.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Secretary Wilson announced to-day that experts of the Agricultural Department will hunt all over the United States and its new possessions for conditions favorable to the cultivation of the filler tobacco, such as is now raised in Cuba, so that if possible all the filler tobacco used in this country eventually may be raised within the boundaries of the United States. "The United States," he said, "is now paying $8,000,000 for wrapper tobacco. We have succeeded in finding in this country the conditions under which all the wrapper we need can be raised here and experts of the Department of Agriculture for the first time are seeking soils adaptable to the cultivation of the fine filler products. We have parts of Pennsylvania and Texas selected for the investigation of our experts, and land for similar purposes will be selected in all our new island possessions, with a view to ascertaining how and under what conditions the filler product can be built up here."

BRITISH PAPER NOW ADMITS THAT THE KING HAS CANCER

London, Oct. 27.—Reynolds' Weekly Newspaper is the first British paper to assert that King Edward is suffering from cancer of the throat. In to-day's issue it declares that since His Majesty's accession three operations have been performed for the removal of papilloma on the left vocal chord, and that one was removed from the right vocal chord last week.

"Assistance was readily summoned," says this journal, "as His Majesty was breathing with difficulty, and an immediate operation was performed. But it was regarded as a temporary relief, the injured epithelium now having become a cancerous growth, and serious developments are expected."

The court must decide as to which is the more credible.

May Be Congressional Inquiry.

"The friends of Schley are beginning to talk about a congressional investigation in case the report of the court is against him. They do not propose to accept anything short of a complete vindication, and they believe that public sentiment will sustain them in such a demand. They also propose to have Congress create the rank of Vice Admiral for Schley, and have him restored to the active list to enjoy this rank. The chances are, therefore, that the Schley controversy will not end with the report of the court inquiry. It will be carried to Congress to be fought over there in committee and on the floor."

WILL SOON BE OPENED.

Plans For Operating the Manchurian-Siberian Railway Made.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 27.—According to a dispatch to the Novoye Vremya from Vladivostok, the Russian Gen. Grodekoff, accompanied by the Russian Assistant Minister of Finance, M. Romanoff, will soon open the Manchurian-Siberian railway.

REBELS DEFEATED.

FIGHT WITH INSURGENTS ON ISLAND OF PANAY.

CONDITIONS IN CEBU.

Encouraging Reports Received, and the Province May Soon Be Pacified—Lack of Food.

Manila, Oct. 27.—The constabulary report a fight with insurgents near Pasig, province of Iloilo, Island of Panay, in which twenty-five insurgents were killed and three captured, together with a quantity of arms and ammunition.

The news from Gen. Hughes regarding conditions in the Island of Cebu is encouraging. Lorena has surrendered with his entire force and one cannon and seven rifles, while Gen. Hughes is negotiating for the surrender of Maxilo, who styles himself "Governor" of the Ico-milliar. His surrender will mean the pacification of the province.

Lack of food and the harassing effects of the aggressive tactics now pursued by the American forces are having their influence upon the natives. In many places where rice is doled out by the Government only enough is given for one meal, so that it is hardly possible for any large quantity to find its way to the insurgents.

It is believed that the recent manifestations in the Island of Samar were chiefly due to the lack of food, the insurgents finding it necessary to make outlets to the coast in order to obtain this.

The first labor problem growing out of the new tariff has arisen. A hat and umbrella factory employing 600 hands, found it necessary to close. The workers are making a protest to the commission, urging protection, as the same goods from Germany can be sold at half the price it takes to manufacture them here.

Lieut. J. Van Schaick reports that in attack by insurgents on the municipal police and scouts at Sabang one scout was killed and two of the police were captured. The insurgents secured two Krag-Jorgensen rifles, two shotguns and two hundred rounds of ammunition. Lieut. Van Schaick has been ordered to occupy the Barrio suburb of Sabang.

The Rebellion In Samar.

Dispatches from Catbalogan, Samar, say that stringent and energetic measures are being taken to suppress the insurrection in that island. Gen. Smith has notified all the presidents of the head men of the Pueblos that, in order to avoid trouble, they must surrender all arms and turn over the persons implicated in the Balangiga massacre before November 6, threatening that otherwise the presidents will be sent to the Island of Guam, the villages destroyed and the property confiscated. Marines under Maj. Littleton W. T. Waller have been stationed at Balangiga and Basey, and ten gunboats are vigilantly patrolling the Samar coast. Most of the towns in the southern part of the island have been destroyed.

Naval Cadet Loveman Now Commanding the gunboat Mariveles, who had gone ashore at Nipa-Nipa, South Samar, to prevent smuggling, was attacked by the insurgents. He lost his revolver and was shot and killed.

It is not a question as to the friendship of the members of the court for Admiral Schley. They are the judges to pass upon this conflicting testimony regarding Schley's conduct as an independent commander of a fleet in time of war. The testimony against him is wrong. Schley's denial is positive.

FUNERAL

Of the Murdered Empire Mine Guard

ATTENDED BY A LARGE CROWD.

PRISONERS CHARGED WITH CRIME REFUSE TO TALK.

OPERATORS ARE DETERMINED.

Will Resist Attempts To Organize Their Men and Will Not Recognize the Union.

A MINE COMPELLED TO CLOSE.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—A great concourse of people attended, this afternoon, the funeral of Robert Coffey, chief of the Empire guard, who was murdered yesterday morning while pursuing a band of men who had fired on the company's employees on their way to work. The Rev. Dr. Charles Harris Nash conducted the services at the residence, and burial rites were performed by the Masonic lodge. The interment was at Hopevale cemetery.

The five strikers who are under arrest charged with complicity in the officer's assassination refuse to talk of the affair. They have been placed in separate cells. One of the men, Ellis Deckard, was permitted by Jailer W. T. Williamson to use the telephone at the prison this morning. He tried to call up James W. Rutland, president of the Mine Workers' Union, but could not ascertain his whereabouts. He succeeded in communicating with another union official in Madisonville, and was advised by him, Jailer Williamson says, not to talk to any one and to give that advice to the other prisoners. The strikers have not made arrangements for attorneys' services, but it was stated to-night at the jail that President Woods and his lawyers were expected to arrive here to-morrow morning to participate in the examining trial.

Prisoners Frightened.

The prisoners last night exhibited great nervousness and signs of fright, for the air was full of rumors of a mob. Manager W. T. Rutland, of the Empire mines, says that feeling was so high against the men and the belief of their guilt was so general in the vicinity of the crime, that it was feared they would be lynched before they could be removed to Hopkinsville for safe keeping. The miners are demanding by the tragedy, and for the first time since the beginning of the unsettled conditions, brought about by the union agitators, the miners were closed to-morrow. Manager Rutland says his employees are in such a state of excitement that it may be a week or more before work can be resumed.

Will Resist Organization.

The operators are more strongly opposed to the union now than ever, and will abandon the mines before they will allow them to be organized.

The tramps arrested, Frank and Jim Barton, have given a clear account of their wanderings for several weeks, and most of the story has been verified. They will likely be released to-morrow unless they are held as witnesses. An important clue is a hat which the guards found near the scene of the murder. The prosecution expects to attribute to the hat the identity of the prisoners. The Goldworthy brothers live near Crofton, and Jim W. Anderson, George Thompson and Deckard have homes in the vicinity of Empire and were formerly in the employ of the mining company.

Everything is quiet to-day at Empire and there has been no shooting or disorder of any kind since Saturday morning.

No Troops Needed.

Maj. John D. Anderson, of Nashville, president of the Empire Mining Company, was here to-night. He said no effort had been made to have Gov. Beckham send troops, as Sheriff Barnes had expressed himself as able to cope with the situation. Maj. Anderson reported that no circumstances would the Empire mines be forced into the union. Deputy Sheriff H. H. Foley returned to-night from Empire. He said that strong proof is being accumulated against the prisoners.

REPUBLICANS FRIGHTENED.

The Democrats' Chances In Greenup County Are Good.

Greenup, Ky., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—With the election a week off, it would be hard to say which party will win. That the Republicans are badly frightened is shown by the desperate efforts they are making. Former Lieut. Gov. Worthington has found out that he will not have a walkover to be elected Representative this fall. James D. Biggs, the Democratic nominee, is doubtless the most popular man in the county. He belongs to one of the best and largest families in Eastern Kentucky and there has never been a public act of his that was open to criticism. If he is not elected he will reduce the Republican majority to a very small margin.

The Republican nominee for State Senator for the Thirty-second senatorial district, composed of Boyd, Greenup, Elliott and Lawrence counties, has spent several months making a thorough canvass of the district, but he is unknown outside of his own precinct.

PEACEMAKER FORCED TO SHOOT.

Negro Killed In a Fight Near Campbellsville.

Campbellsville, Ky., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—At a festive last night at the home of "Jim Tom" Gowdy, a negro, a dispute arose between Anthony Roach and another negro over changing some money. To prevent a difficulty Gowdy
